

GARY R. SULLIVAN
ANTIQUES INC.

A highly important
William Cummens
Tall Clock.

The case attributed to Thomas Seymour,
circa 1810.

This superb example represents the Roxbury case clock at it's finest.

The impressive size, agreeable proportions, quality of materials and superior construction support the Seymour attribution. Height with finial, 105½"

Last illustrated in 1911: "Simon Willard & His Clocks" John Ware Willard, Page 101, plate 34.
