

GARY R. SULLIVAN
ANTIQUES INC.

For a Southern Gentleman

This stunning tall case clock with a rare animated rocking ship dial was made by Quaker clockmaker John Bailey Jr. (III) of Hanover, Mass and is numbered and dated,

*“No. 123
4th M<sup>o</sup> 1819”*

*The clock was made for
Mr. Thomas Figures Norfleet of Bertie County, North Carolina.*

*His correspondence indicated that the enterprising John Bailey Jr.
produced a number of fine
clocks for the Southern market, selling via agents or during his visits to North Carolina.*

*Exhibited at “Harbor & Home
Furniture of Southeastern Massachusetts” at
The Nantucket Whaling Museum, Summer-Fall 2009.*

www.garysullivanantiques.com
781-784-9914 • Sharon, Massachusetts