

An extraordinary Quaker-made, tiger maple tall case clock, with a vibrantly painted dial, attributed to Paul Rogers, Berwick Maine, circa 1800. All of our clocks are professionally installed and are guaranteed to run dependably. $21,000.

A very rare Hepplewhite cherry tall case clock by Asaph Whitcomb, Stone, Massachusetts, with wonderful regional inlays, circa 1810-15. $18,500.

A rare New York City tall clock by Ellingham Earhart, in an elegant Federal inlaid mahogany case, circa 1800. All of our clocks are in fine running order and can be shipped and installed anywhere. $55,000.

An important Sheraton mirror-back bureau, attributed to Nathaniel Appleton, Salem, Massachusetts, circa 1810-15. From the estate of Benjamin Flydenman and illustrated in Sack's Volume VII, page 3581, $32,500.

A terrific tiger maple slant front desk with a documented Westport, Massachusetts history, circa 1790. Illustrated in "Harbor & Home: Furniture of Southwestern Massachusetts, 1710-1850", page 209. $32,000.

A fine Federal mahogany chest with a bold carved crest attributed to Samuel F. McWhiney, Salem, Massachusetts, circa 1790. $28,000.