

An important bride's model Massachusetts shelf clock by Aaron Willard, Boston, circa 1820. $59,500.

A terrific Boston Queen Anne walnut high chest, with book-matched burl veneers, circa 1740-50. $39,000.

A rare and attractive Federal inlaid mahogany sofa, in an agreeable small size, New York City, circa 1805. $17,500.

A wonderful Federal gilt gesso and inlaid mahogany mirror, New York City, circa 1800. $29,000.

A handsome Chippendale mahogany desk and bookcase, attributed to Samuel McIntire, Salem, 1790-1800. $22,000.

GARY R. SULLIVAN
ANTIQUES INC.

A historically important Classical mahogany tall clock made by abolitionist, John Bailey Jr. for leading abolitionist, John A. Collins. New Bedford, circa 1835-40. $53,000.